SCFU foil and sabre championships 2013

The SCFU foil and sabre individual championships were held at Wimbledon College on 27th October.

Sabre medalists, Dominic Carey, Nicola Freebody, Jim Hamilton and Simon White. Women's sabre medalists Julie Schofield and Nicola Freebody

FOIL

There were 12 fencers in the foil, and the format was a poule unique of 12 fencers followed by a DE of 4 to determine the medals. From the poule Ian de Whalley from Kingston Fencing Club, SCFU chairman and 6 times previous winner, emerged undefeated with Brian Harkins as 2nd seed with one defeat. 3rd and 4th place were provided by Ian Head (two defeats) from Whitgift school and on indicators from Conner Head and Warren Freeman Birch from Streatham FC (four defeats). The semi finals produced a close fought war of attrition between Brian Harkins and Ian Head, won by Ian 9-6, and a victory 15-9 by veteran Ian de Whalley over Warren F Birch. The final proved a rather one-sided affair (15-3) won by Ian de Whalley using his experience to out-fence runner up Ian Head. There womens trophy was awarded to Nicky Freebody (Guildford) who came a creditable 7th in the poule unique.

SABRE

At one time the sabre entries threatened to outnumber the foil but in the event there were 10 fencers. Again a poule unique was used to seed for a DE with all fencers promoted. In the absence of previous winner Romanian number 1 Alex Bella, and 6 time winner Steve Pope, Jim Hamilton fenced undefeated through the poules to reach an all Wimbledon and veterans final with his club chairman Simon White, the joint third and fourth places were filled by

The entry – 17 fencers including two ladies – was small this year, however, it was enough to make a good competition, which was fenced in two poules followed by a direct elimination. It was never in doubt that Tim Buzwell of Wimbledon and Luke Jones of Redhill and Reigate would make the medals, and they duly met in the final. Tim retained the title once again – one that he has held since 2010.

Épée medalists, Derek Mortimer, George Scott, Peter Robinson, Nick Jackson and John Mackey. Margaret Smith, Petchpailin Leenutaphong and Jane Stuart

Sabre medalists, Kareem Younes, Christopher Pigeon, Mark Richardson and Alex Coleman.

Foil medalists, George Scott and Gareth Raynes

There was a good entry for this competition, comprising ten lady foilists nine men foilists, five men's sabreurs (no ladies), ten men and three lady épéeists.

In all nine clubs were represented, particularly for the ladies which are often under represented. The honours were shared among four clubs (The University of Surrey had three first places, Wimbledon FC two, and Kingston FC and Guildford FC one each.

There were a number of close fights in the finals, in particular the épée final went to 15-14, as did the Sabre final. Generally the fencing was of a reasonable standard and everyone enjoyed the competition. The format was a poule unique followed by a DE with men and ladies being split at the DE stage. The exceptions were the foil in which there was a good entry of ladies allowing them to have their own competition and the épée where there were too many ladies and men in total to run a poule unique, and two
